CofC in Martinique
FRENCH
May 15- June 5, 2018

PROGRAM FEE- $3,795*
*(Subject to change & does not include tuition)

Students enroll in two of the following courses:

FREN 202: Intermediate French in the West Indies

FRCS 102: Francophone Culture and Society in the West Indies

Students will embark on a three week adventure around the West Indies. They will fly into Dominica, a former French and British colony, to study the French history on this Nature Island and visit the Kalinago Reserve, home of the last remaining descendants of the indigenous Carib. From Dominica, students will make their way to Martinique, an overseas region of France, which will be their home away from home for the next two weeks. Students will take morning French classes in the capital of Fort-de-France, and participate in afternoon and weekend excursions to discover this Island of Flowers, from the mighty Mont Pelée to the pristine coral reefs of the Caribbean. Students will live with local host families in Martinique. The final weekend will then be spent on Saint Lucia, another former French colony, for students to present their final projects against a Caribbean blue backdrop.
