Program Information:
This program provides students an opportunity to study upper level French in Paris, France for three weeks. The program will provide 6 credit hours total: 3 hours in either FREN 361 (Current Issues in France), FREN 390 (Special Topics: A History of Paris and its Architecture), or CPLT 390: Midnight in Paris. CPLT 390 will be taught in English, and students will read advanced selected works in translation. Students will reside in a residence centrally located in Paris. The daily schedule while in Paris includes classes as well as visits to museums, sites, and other monuments inside and outside of Paris. Historic sites include the Arc-de-Triomphe, Champs-élysées, the Sacré-Coeur, the Musée du Louvre, the Orsay Museum, etc.

This program involves walking for long periods of time on a daily basis.
